AN ORATION

BY TOM JEFFERSON'S GHOST.

Scene—A modern dining hall on the occasion of a Thomas Jefferson Democratic harmony banquet.

William Jennings Bryan has just taken his seat. He has been speaking an hour and a half on the subject of "Thomas Jefferson, the Father of Democracy." As his silver voice dies away the hall rings and echoes with long continued applause. Just at this moment the banqueters are startled and stricken into silence by a strange and fearful noise at the hall door. It sounds like the rattling together of dry bones. Hush! Listen! The knob turns—the door opens—it enters—a skeleton! The joints creak and the fleshless limbs rattle together as it walks. A long white shroud suspended from the shoulders hangs loosely about the gaunt limbs. The banqueters tremble and turn pale as the skeleton enters the hall. It is a skeleton of the Jeffersonian Democracy. It is a skeleton of the Jeffersonian Democracy. It is a skeleton of the Jeffersonian Democracy.

Taking a central position in the hall the skeleton raises one long bony arm high into the air and after this manner begins to speak:

"Mr. Toastmaster and Gentlemen:—It affords me unbounded gratification to appear before you on this occasion. I see you don't recognize me yet, but you'll find out who I am by and by. I have been slandered and misrepresented in this meeting and I come here to vindicate myself. I come here to make a speech in reply to the honorable gentleman from Nebraska who has just taken his seat. I shall announce as my toast, 'The Blunders of Bryan,' and before proceeding further I will tell you who I am. I am Thomas Jefferson. I have come back from the silence of the grave to be present at this meeting, in order that I might have a chance to correct the wrong impressions concerning me that are being inculcated into the minds of the younger generation by the teachings of the so-called present-day Democrats. During my lifetime on earth I was a servant of the people, and I tried to serve them well. I wrote the Declaration of American Independence, a paper which for more than a hundred years has been recognized as the most powerful document ever penned by mortal man. The truths which I set down in that document have come to be the way-bill and standard of government for more than eighty million American citizens, and they are looked upon in every civilized land as the most vital truths—the most all-embracing expressions of justice and right—that ever emanated from the brain of mortal man.

Just one hundred years ago I purchased from France the great territory of Louisiana. How wisely I acted let the St. Louis World's Fair demonstrate. In the face of the fact that I said all men are created free and equal, and in the face of the fact that I set the precedent for national growth and expansion, I have to-day been called the father of a party that refuses to recognize the equal rights of the people; a party that opposes national growth and expansion; a party that has no higher motive than the gratification of its greed for office. Gentlemen, I refuse to be called the father of such a party. My dead bones would not lie still in the caquet and let such an outrage be perpetrated against them. I was the father of the Democratic party of the past and rightly proud was I of my offspring; but the Democratic party of to-day is none of mine. It is not even distantly related to me. I challenge your Matchless Orator to produce the least shadow of evidence that I taught the things that his party is practicing to-day. I believe that the United States was destined to grow and expand and become a mighty power in the earth. And I put my belief into tangible form when I added the great territory of Louisiana to the national domain in 1803. That was the nation's first step in the direction of becoming a world power, and from that it has gone steadily on step by step until it has reached the highest point of eminence ever attained by any nation on the face of the globe. The Democratic party as I organized it was a party of progress; a party with high and noble aims; a party which taught and practiced equal rights to all and special privileges to none. But how has the mighty fallen! The Democracy of to-day is no more like my Democracy than a dish-faced donkey is like a thorough-bred horse. I cannot account for the degeneracy of the party except upon the supposition that somewhere down the line there must have been a terrible political explosion, and in the time of that explosion the Democratic party got its back-bone dislocated, its gall shifted to where its heart ought to be, and its brains completely destroyed. Alas that sad occurrence the poor old party didn't have sense enough to carry out the great work which it had begun, and consequently there arose another great apostle of liberty in the person of Abe Lincoln. He it was who organized the Republican party, and the mantle of fair government and justice to all, which the Democratic wreck was no longer able or willing to carry, was placed upon the back of the Republican elephant. The elephant has proven himself worthy of his mantle and his fame has gone out into every land.

Your Matchless Orator has just been telling you how he loves and honors the teachings of Jefferson. Will he kindly stand up and tell me where and when I taught that men ought to be disfranchised and driven from the polls on account of race or color? Will he kindly tell me where and when I expressed the opinion that a government by force and fraud was better than a government of the people, by the people and for the people? Will he kindly tell me where and when I taught that election thieves should be defended at the expense of the Commonwealth they have robbed? These are a few of the things that are practiced by the Democrats of to-day, and Mr. Bryan claims to be a Democrat. If he is true to the party which he has led, and which he still wants to lead, he is not true to me and my teachings, for the two are as far apart as 'from the center thrice to the utmost pole.'

Gentlemen, you cannot make my name a cat's-paw to rake the dumpings of office into your political plates. I am too old for a game like that. I have heard the term 'Jefferson Democrats,' applied to political pirates, and unscrupulous election thieves until I am heartily tired of it. I here and now enter a protest against the further use of my name in connection with the doings of present day Democrats. Hereafter you may name your harmony dinners after Cleveland or Bryan or Hill or Stone. These are all harmony men. Each one has a different sort of harmony which he wants the party to adopt. I advise you to mix them up thoroughly and have harmony hash for your next dinner. Now I must be pecking along back toward my grave. Good-bye."

As the skeleton rattled off down the hall and out at the door, the banqueters all cast a few excited glances at Mr. Bryan, who was valuing endeavoring to put his hat on something which looked more like a porcupine than a great orator's head, and without speaking a word they all slid through a back door and were gone.—Yellow Jacket.

The Kind You Have Always Bought Beware of Imitations
of
Charles H. Johnson

An Apology.
Some years ago there was an old judge on the bench in Berks county, whose decisions, in consequence of numerous reversals, did not always command universal respect. One day, in a case in which he was sitting, one of the lawyers lost patience at his inability to set things in a certain light, and in the heat of the moment remarked that the intellect of the court was as dark as a fish of lightning could not penetrate it. For this contempt the judge showed a disposition to be very severe with the offended, and it was only after much persuasion by friends of the latter that he yielded and decided to accept a public apology. The following day the lawyer, accordingly, appeared before his honor and made amends by saying: "I regret very much that I said the intellect of the court was as dark as lightning could not penetrate it. It is a very penetrating thing." —Kansas City Star.

The fact was that Mr. Riley, acting under explicit instructions, had just obtained on Tuesday a list of twenty-seven instances of executive clemency
extended to Breckitt county criminals,
and was asking for the papers
in order to inspect them. Then Gov.

LOUISVILLE HERALD

Touches up the Boy Governor for Refusing to Allow its Correspondent Access to State Records.

The Hon. Breck Hill, Secretary of State, is a gentleman and an orator.
We always enjoy hearing him speak.
But when he talks earnestly through his hat it is a never-ending delight.
Mr. Hill has spoken, as is proper, in a spirit of Christian mediation, trying to restore to his friend and Chief Executive, Gov. Beckham, some shreds of lost dignity, not to speak of a few bits of shattered veracity. It must be embarrassing to a Secretary of State to serve under a Governor who acts like a school boy and talks like a man who knew of the Ninth Commandment only by vague rumor.
Naturally he makes an effort to restore a wabily ideal, and incidentally to render the remainder of his term as comfortable as possible.

Mr. Hill is so earnest in his desire "not to antagonize" the Governor that he stands by him in refusing to permit the records of his office to be seen in the Breckitt county pardon cases. As a true Democrat he will not allow the Constitution to come between friends. Besides, Mr. Hill is not hiding or concealing his own records. We feel satisfied he has nothing to conceal. His appearance on the scene is merely to beg Gov. Beckham off from his own folly. We wish him well of his generous effort to reconstruct or furnish an intelligence to the Governor. It is a noble act.
But when the Almighty has laid me feel authorized to entertain a reasonable doubt of Mr. Hill's success.

The only reason we refer to Mr.
Hill's statement is because, as a friend of the Governor's, united in spite of the Constitution, he says that Gov. Beckham declared to him in effect that Mr. George W. Riley, the Herald's correspondent at Frankfort, was a man who would lie or steal, and could not be trusted with the records, because he had misrepresented the number and character of the Breckitt county pardons.

As long as Gov. Beckham's accusations rested only upon the foundation of his excited and undignified bad temper in the assault upon our correspondent, we did not think them worth dental or discussion. But now that Mr. Hill gives apparent respectability to the accusations, by reporting them as a defense of the Governor, who repeated them to him calmly, twenty-four hours later, it is well to see how veracity and personal integrity measure up as between Mr. Riley and Gov. Beckham.

"The Governor is exasperated," says Mr. Hill, "because he believes that an effort is being made to misrepresent and injure him, and it appears that an attempt is being made to create the impression on the public mind through The Herald that a very large number of pardons in felony cases have been granted to citizens of Breckitt county during the present administration." Yet on the day Gov. Beckham made the accusation against Mr. Riley not one word had ever been printed in The Herald as to the number or character of pardons granted to Breckitt county applicants. The correspondent had simply sent the pardon record in the staccato cases of Fugate and Henderson.
There was not even a casual reference to any other Breckitt county pardons.

The fact was that Mr. Riley, acting under explicit instructions, had just
obtained on Tuesday a list of twenty-
seven instances of executive clemency
extended to Breckitt county criminals,
and was asking for the papers
in order to inspect them. Then Gov.

Beckham interposed by force, accused him of lying, and refused to allow the papers to be seen.

So that up to the moment the accusation of lying was made, Mr. Riley was doing as between Mr. Riley and Gov. Beckham, it was not done by Mr. Riley. If Gov. Beckham feels the need of a proxy in his solitary possession of the alternative we wish him well in the search for one.

As for the accusation of stealing papers from the records, we should think that a charge of that concerning public matters would come recently from Gov. Beckham's lips.
Mr. Riley is a young gentleman whose personal record in Louisville is unimpeachable. He is honest, truthful, courageous and faithful. He was sent to Frankfort because he possessed those qualities. We expect any representative of a paper that sought to penetrate the facts about the administration to have asperious cast upon him.

There has been something of Breckitt county morals about the State House at Frankfort since the day nearly four years ago when Gov.
Beckham, with the brand of a notorious politician, took upon his forehead, took possession of the office stolen for him by his consort. He is Governor to-day through the advantages secured by that theft. As between Mr.
Riley and Gov. Beckham, therefore, we are quite sure that Mr. Riley has stolen nothing.

We do not know what there is concealed in the Breckitt county pardon record that caused Gov. Beckham to use the great power of his official position to cast aspersions upon a modest young gentleman who was simply doing his duty under fair instructions. It may have seemed a brave act in the Governor. It might be thought brave in Breckitt county.
It seems to us to have been cowardly.

While the records are closed to the public much may be done. There may be letters and petitions that need revising or need removal. But if there is any man in Kentucky who would not be benefited by stealing or revising the records it is Mr. Riley.
If there is one who would be benefited it is Gov. Beckham.—Louisville Herald.

Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy.
The uniform success of this remedy has made it the most popular preparation in use for bowel complaints.
It is everywhere recognized as the one remedy that can always be de-summer diarrhoea in children and is undoubtedly the means of saving the lives of a great many children each year. For sale by all druggists.

Kentucky's Share.
The disclosures in court in Jacksonville are more than amazing—they are horrifying.

Imagine a deputy sheriff witnessing a foul assassination in the doorway of the court house and leading to confide in the judge or sheriff of the county because of their known sympathy with the cowardly assassins and the certainty that his own life would pay the penalty of being an unwilling witness to the crime.

It is a significant coincidence that Governor Beckham has pardoned twenty-six Breckitt county criminals within three years, half of them murderers and outlaws, upon the petition of county and district officials.

Does the political partnership between the State House at Frankfort and the Court House at Jackson carry with it the assassination privilege for Breckitt county and absolute immunity to assassins?—Lexington Leader.

His Last Hope Realized.
[From the Sentinel, Gosh, Mont.] In the first opening of Oklahoma to settlement in 1889 the editor of this paper was among the many seekers after fortune who made the big race one fine day in April. During his traveling about and after his camp was pitched upon his claim, he encountered much bad water, which, together with the severe heat, gave him a very severe diarrhoea which it seemed almost impossible to check, and along in June the case became so bad he expected to die. One day one of his neighbors brought him one small bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy as a last hope. A high dose was given him while he was rolling about on the ground in great agony, and in a few minutes the disease was repeated. The good effect of the medicine was soon noticed and within an hour the patient was taking his first sound sleep for a fortnight.
That one little bottle worked a complete cure, and he cannot help but feel grateful. The reason for local disorders being at hand angustia this item. For sale by all druggists.

Come Out and Fight.
Don't attempt to ask the editor to write up every week and rebuke every evil in the town and community, but when convinced that such duties need attending to write and article for the paper and sign your name for publication. The man who is too big a coward to thus express an opinion is the very one who will stand on the corner and talk loudly about the arrogance of the editor.—Perryville (Ind.) Record.

Hot Weather Weakness.
If you feel lagged out, listless and lacking in energy, you are perhaps suffering from the debilitating effects of summer weather. These symptoms indicate that your system needs tonic to create a healthy appetite, make digestion perfect, regulate the bowels and impart natural activity to the liver. This, Herbine will do.
It is a tonic, laxative and restorative.
H. J. Pregard, Proprietor Grand View Hotel, Cheney, Kan., writes: "I have used Herbine for the last twelve years, and nothing on earth can beat it. It was recommended to me by Dr. Newton, Newton, Kan." 50c at J. H. Williams, druggist.

As far as He Got.
A young man who had but partially prepared his Latin appeared at class one morning and was the first to recite. He read bravely as far as he had prepared. Then he akimished on a little farther in the following indolent manner: "I, Ulysses, saw her (Dido's) heavenly form advancing like a goddess in the sunlight. I sprang toward her, and she welcomed me. Her hair fell down upon her shoulders like the sunbeams on Olym-pus. Her eyes shone like two jewels of the sea. I threw my arms—my arms—about—about—her—her neck—neck—and—nd—that's as far as I got.
Professor."

Constituted Bowels.
To have good health, the body should be kept in a laxative condition, and the bowels moved at least once a day, so that all the poisonous wastes are expelled daily. Mr. G. L.
Edwards, 142 N. Main St., Wichita, Kansas, writes: "I have used Her-bine to regulate the liver and bowels for the past ten years, and found it a reliable remedy." 50c at J. H. Williams, druggist.

FAILURE cannot always be attributed to "fate." It is rather the imperfection of our planning and doing.

THE man that marries a woman who owns a lap-dog is a cheerful idiot, who deserves every thing he gets.

THE new King of Servia is Karageorgievich. He was selected by the Skupstina. Tell all your friends about it.

THE farmers seem to be having their inning. Chickens the size of blackbirds are selling here at forty cents apiece.

AT a cloudburst at Heppner, Ore., Monday, about five hundred lives were lost and millions of dollars worth of property destroyed.

CAN you tell the difference between the selection of a King in Servia and the election of a Democratic machine candidate at a local primary?

THE wholesale and disgraceful pardoning of Breathitt county criminals by Beckham to forward his political interests, is now bearing its awful fruits.

WHAT becomes of a man who is too mean to go to hell when he dies? Any information along this line will be greatly appreciated by Judge Hargis, Jackson, Breathitt county, Ky.

WE advise the new monarch of Servia to adopt the free and unlimited coinage of silver at the ratio of 16 to 1 at once. It would be a sure specific for all the ills to which that semi-barbaric nation is heir.

MR. BECKHAM, before you charge another young man, whose character is above reproach, of theft, suppose you read what Carlyle says along this line. We quote it: "Make yourself an honest man, and then you may be sure there is one rascal less in the world."

THE Aurora, Nebraska, Register says the Republicans would like to get Grover Cleveland elected again and unload another panic on him. Any Republican who would advocate the election of Cleveland should be quartered in a lively stable and fed on dry thistles and raw skunks.

A PAPER up in Iowa has the following report of a county fair: "The poultry exhibit consisted of two bantams and an owl. In the horticultural hall one sack of corn and two cows made the stock display. Thursday the owl ate the chickens, and the cows ate the corn and the fair adjourned."

THE picnic season is here and the fine-haired, pink combrick cuss, with the red necktie is all in evidence. He always wears the fuzz on his similitude divided into two mathematically precise hemispheres. He is sometimes seen running at large on the streets, but it is only the imported variety found here.

FOR the first time in the history of the State it has become necessary to resort to a mandamus to examine the public records at Frankfort. No one blames Beckham for wanting to conceal his disgraceful pardon record. Of course he didn't want the people of the State to know that he had granted twenty-seven political pardons to criminals, a majority of whom were murderers, in Breathitt county.

JOSEPH D. TANNER, Circuit Court Clerk of Butler county, has announced his candidacy for the Republican nomination for State Auditor. He is serving his second term as clerk. He enjoys the highest confidence and esteem of his home people. He is an astute politician and a gentleman whose character is above reproach.

Ohio county will be favorable to Mr. Tanner.

PERHAPS never in the history of the world have so many avenues of success been open to men who are wide awake and ambitious. The mistake of being asleep is the most fatal error that a young man can commit. The world will take small interest in a man who is not able and willing to do something which needs to be done. To be laudably ambitious is an absolute essential to success. Energy is better than an education because an education comes only through a manifestation of energy. Only one life is allotted to each individual and the utmost care should be taken that no mistakes be made because we can not go back and correct them. The man who has a capacity to do things deserves no sympathy if he fails.

CANDIDATE FOR CLERK OF THE COURT OF APPEALS.

MR. S. A. Anderson, who is a candidate for the Republican nomination for Clerk of the Court of Appeals, has, for several years, been one of Ohio county's foremost young men, and one of our most progressive citizens. Mr. Anderson was born and reared on a farm and began his career as a "devil" in a printing office and served in every capacity in the newspaper work until his election as Clerk of the Ohio Circuit Court in 1897, at which time he defeated one of the strongest men in the Democratic party—the election being close and his opponent not being satisfied with the result and following Democratic rules, filed a contest, which Mr. Anderson successfully defended, and won the unanimous decision of the Court of Appeals.

He is an active member of the Knight of Pythias Lodge and has always taken an active interest in the welfare of his State and county. Mr. Anderson always takes an active interest in every campaign for the success of the Republican ticket, and gives his time and means to further the principles of the Republican party and for the success of the ticket. His wide reputation as a business man, a public spirited citizen and as a courteous gentleman makes him very strong with all classes of citizens. His nomination would reflect credit upon any party and his election would guarantee to the people of the State the very best Clerk of the Court of Appeals we have ever had or ever will have.

In view of the fact that the Clerk of the Court of Appeals is a member of the State Board of Election Commissioners, it behooves the Republican party to nominate a good man for the place and we don't think there could be found a better man for the place in the State than Mr. Anderson.

Bail Refused Powers.

Georgetown, Ky., June 16.—Caleb Powers has failed in his attempt to secure bail in order that he might attend the funeral of his father, Amos Powers, who died at his home in Barbourville. Powers wired Judge Robbins, at Mayfield, that he would give a $50,000 bond if he would allow it to be done. Judge Robbins wired back that he could not do such under the law.

Judge Robbins has also fixed Monday, August 3, as the date when he will begin the trial of Powers.

FOR LAST TIME

Mother Embraces Her Son Who is Doomed to Death.

Lexington, Ky., June 16.—Mrs. E. C. O'Brien, of Memphis, mother of Claude O'Brien, condemned to death for the murder of A. B. Chinn here last October, who arrived in this city last night on a visit to her son, was allowed to see him for the first time this morning. Mrs. O'Brien, accompanied by her son, Joseph, reached the jail at 8 o'clock and was escorted to the private office of the jailer.

O'Brien had been notified of his mother's coming, and was up and dressed bright and early. The scene of the first meeting of mother and son was very pitiful. After Wallace allowed the mother to step on the inside of the door on the first floor and embrace her son, after which she was escorted to the office, and prisoner was placed in the steel cage enclosure in one corner of the office, where they were allowed to converse for some time.

The meeting to-day will be the last time Mrs. O'Brien will get to touch her son. Present at the meeting was Jailer Wallace, Deputy Thornton and your correspondent, and every move of the mother and son was watched very closely while they were together. The scene was heartrending, and the tears flowed from the eyes of every one present.

Rural Routes to be Established All Over Daviess County.

Says the Owensboro Messenger: Mr. W. G. Johnson, of Columbus, O., special agent and examiner for the United States, of this division of the rural free delivery system, arrived in the city Tuesday and is to make an examination and survey of the whole county with a view of determining where other rural free delivery routes are practicable. He will make a map of the county, which will be servicable in locating new routes. It is proposed to make Daviess a model county in this regard. Mr. E. A. Axon, of the local postal force, has been out in the country with Mr. Johnson on a short junk, and other trips will be made. Facts will soon be reported to headquarters and it is believed that several new routes will soon be established. Extra men will have to be employed and Mr. Johnson will soon hold an examination for the selection of these.

Charlie Taylor Shot.

On the 6th of June, Eugene Faith shot Charlie Taylor, both colored, through the neck inflicting a serious wound. The shooting occurred at Taylor Mines, and had its origin over the proposition to arrest a strange negro made by Faith to Taylor. During the difficulty Faith threatened to shoot Taylor, whereupon Taylor offered to bet that he would not. Faith fired away and won the bet. Afterwards they met, talked the matter over and decided that they were mistaken about being mad, that it was all a joke, that the shooting was entirely accidental, that it could not be avoided, that if it was to do over they would do it again, that Faith should play the bet to Taylor, that they would walk down the byways and back alleys of life arm in arm until both will have eventually accented up the flume.

WILD WEST SCOUT

And His Thrilling Show at the State Fair.

It Will be One of the Big Free Attractions at Owensboro in September.

The Directors of the State Fair, which will be held at Owensboro in September are not only working hard to secure a successful distribution of the $20,000 cash premiums for live stock, agricultural and domestic exhibits, but they have a keen eye as well to the amusement features and are now engaged in arranging a highly interesting program which will be announced from time to time, as it is completed.

The first big attraction settled upon is the famous "Broncho John's Wild West Show." It will be free to all who attend the Fair.

As a scout of the plains, "Broncho John" has a place in the history of Indian warfare, and in a startlingly realistic manner he and his band of scouts and Indians will hold up stage coaches, "bust wild bronchos" and give a sham battle between a lone scout and a band of red skins, the scout using his money as a breast-work.

There will also be automobile races, professional and athletic games, a race between an ostrich and a horse, and a score of other things.

Prof. E. W. Patterson and Miss Cora Petty will be united in marriage at the bride's home, near Narrows, at 9 o'clock, Wednesday, June 24. Prof. Patterson is one of Ohio county's most promising young teachers. He has been elected to a professorship in Hartford College for the coming school year. He is now engaged in the Y. M. C. A. work, being the County Secretary. Miss Petty comes from one of the best families in the county. She is accomplished and amiable.

M. F. Elkin, Lexington, Ky., lectured Wednesday night at the Methodist church in the interest of the local lodge of K. O. T. M. to a large audience. As a result of his coming the lodge has secured ten new members.

In honor of Mr. Elkin, a banquet was to have been given at the New Commercial last night, but he was called away yesterday and the banquet was postponed to a later date. The Macabee Lodge has a strong and active membership here and it is increasing it numbers constantly.

S. A. Anderson a Candidate.
Samuel A. Anderson, of Hartford, Ohio county, has announced his candidacy for Clerk of the Court of Appeals, subject to action of the Republican convention. Mr. Anderson is at present Clerk of the Ohio Circuit Court. In 1898, in a memorable case, his election to the Circuit Clerkship was unsuccessfully contested by Likens, the Democratic candidate.

Mr. Anderson is one of the best known Republicans in the State.—Louisville Herald.

Notice to Creditors.
All persons having claims against the estate of James R. Coppage, deceased, are hereby notified to present the same to me at my office in Hartford, Ky., properly proven on or before the 15th day of July, 1903, or they will be forever barred.

June 1st, 1903.

Y. M. C. A. Notes.
The men's Bible class at Hartford will have two meetings per week, one on Monday night at 7.45, the other on Sunday at the regular hour, 2.30.

The 3rd chapter of Hebrews is our lesson for next week. All christian men in town should join one or the other of these classes.

Beaver Dam is planning to put in a bath room for the benefit of young men there. This would be a great stride in the work of the Y. M. C. A. and if proper interest is taken, it can be done, and the fee placed in the reach of all. We earnestly hope for the hearty co-operation and support of all business men of the town. Let's do something to uplift the young men.

Advertising Pays.

Talk about the benefits of advertising! Down in Florida the other day a family lost a child which they supposed had strayed away from home and got lost. After searching in vain for three days the frantic parents placed an advertisement in the nearest newspaper. Imagine the surprise of the parents upon going to the door the next morning to see a monster aligator upon the doorstep, where he discharged the child alive and then died himself. The "ad" cost but 25 cents, and it gave them back their darling child; they sold the aligator's hide for $25 and the parents are showing the child at all the dime museums in the land at $50 a week. Does advertising pay?—Yel'o's Jack-et.

If the Men in Hartford

Should come here for their Suits, we believe we could please every one of them, and we would have the swellest looking lot of men in Hartford to be found anywhere in the country. We do dress a large share of them, but we often wonder why every man doesn't come here for his clothes. We believe they would, too, if they only knew the low prices and superiority of our Clothing.

We never saw finer Clothing than we are offering our trade for summer wear. Suits with all the kinks of fashion, $3.00 to $15.00. Swell as it is possible to make them. And then we have everything that is right in Hats and Haberdashery to complete the outfit. Suits for the long, slim fellow; Suits for the short fellow; Suits for the thick fellow, and Suits for the medium-sized fellow. Suits for the Boys and Youths. Suits for everybody. Don't take our word for it, but come and see and be convinced.
